2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Guidelines for Accounting and Financial Reporting by Non-Government Organisations / Non-Profit Organisations as issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Pakistan.

2.2 Accounting convention

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

2.3 Fixed assets

These are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Depreciation is charged using the straight line method in accordance with the rates specified in note 3 to the financial statements after taking into account the residual value, if any.

Depreciation on acquisition is charged from the month of addition whereas no depreciation is charged in the month of disposal.

Gains and losses on disposals of fixed assets, if any, are included in income and expenditure account.

Major renewals and improvements are capitalised and the assets so replaced, if any, are retired. Normal repairs and maintenance are charged to income and expenditure account as and when incurred.

2.4 Revenue recognition

Income from donations are recognised on receipt basis, however where donation is receivable it is recognised when there is reasonable assurance that it will be received.

Income from donation is classified as restricted income and un-restricted income. Restricted income pertains to specific projects being undertaken by the Society and is initially credited to the restricted fund. It is subsequently transferred on a systematic basis to income when expenses related to these specific projects are being incurred. Whereas un-restricted income is recognised directly to income.

Return on bank deposits is recognised on accrual basis.

2.5 Expense recognition

Disbursements of donation are recognised in the income and expenditure account during the period in which they are incurred. Other general administrative expenses pertaining to administering and running the Society are recognised on an accrual basis.

Administrative fees is recognised at a rate percent determined by the board of trustees on the donations received from the donors.

2.6 Taxation

Tax expense comprises current tax. Tax expense is recognised in the income and expenditure account on profit earned on investments and savings accounts at rates applicable after taking into account exemptions, if any, available under the Income Tax Ordinance - 2001. Donations received by the Society is exempt from Income Taxes under the Income Tax Ordinance - 2001 and therefore no provision for the same has been made in the financial statements.

2.7 Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency transactions are recorded into Pak Rupee using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

The financial statements are presented in Pak Rupee, which is the Society's functional and presentation currency.

2.8 Accumulated fund

The accumulated fund of the Society consists of an un-restricted fund and a restricted fund.

2.8.1 Un-restricted fund

The un-restricted fund is equivalent to the Society's own capital and is used for meeting the regular expenses of the Society. Surplus or deficit, for the year in the Income and Expenditure Account may be transferred into this fund at the discretion of the board of trustees.

2.8.2 Restricted fund

All the donations received or receivable (when there is reasonable assurance that the donation will be received) are recognised initially in the restricted fund and are transferred to income currently when the associated costs are being incurred.

2.9 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of cash flow statement comprise of cash at banks and short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.
